

Group 4: The Cutting Edge of Informal Learning: makers, mobile, and more!

“We’re different”

- (1) Beyond knowledge gains - we address/invite interest, spark interest, engagement
- (2) We invite/address positive emotions, identity exploration
- (3) We support social interactions, co-creation, and participatory learning, public engagement
- (4) Poses challenging questions for assessment

CIRCL should be like the “App Store” and “Stack overflow” for Cyberlearning

It’s the Process Stupid!”

- Lifecycle Process Design Notebook (e.g. Design Loft)

Next Steps

- Host a parallel maker event at the next summit
- Organize a VC panel at the next summit
